25X1C4e

STANDARD OPERATING PROCYDURE NUMBER 1-3091-2

1 July 1962

25X1A5a1

COMMAND AND/OR DELEGATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES IN PASE AIR FORCE RELATIONSHIP

25X1A5a1 25X1A6a 1. PURPOSE: To reiterate the established channels of command and/or delegation of responsibility in the Air Force- working relation-ship at the Base.

25X1A5a1

2. SCOPE: The Deputy Commander for Support (DCS) component of the Air Force and his subordinates, and the Superintendent and his subordinates.

3. POLICY AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

25X1A9a

25X1A5a1

25X1A5a1

ZUNTAUAT

25X1A9a

25X1A5a1

In their respective rositions, both

Force and

In the promulgation of all Base construction, maintenance and managerial 25X1A9a requirements. On these matters

In the promulgation of all Base construction, maintenance and managerial 25X1A9a requirements. On these matters

In the promulgation of all Base construction, maintenance and managerial 25X1A9a answers to the promulgation of answers to the promulgation of the second answers to the promulgation of the second and channel or delegated representatives. An example of this command channel or delegation of responsibility, and which can in principle be applied across the board, is the case of the Motor Pool operation. The Motor Pool Officer is the representative of the DCS, and in that capacity speaks and oversees for the DCS, and in that capacity speaks and oversees for the Area Superintendent, on matters of vehicular and 25X1A5a1 equipment maintenance.

When points of conflict or differences arise which cannot be resolved at these delegated levels, the unsettled disputes shall revert to the Senior Offices.

Maturally, none of the aforementioned information is to be interpreted as indicating supervisory authority by either subordinate party over the other. The Air Force representative, as in the case of the Motor Pool operation cited above, is on the particular job in a controlling and auditing category to insure that Air Force standards and regulations are being met and maintained. At no point will he interfere with the technical performance of the craft or union that he is working with. Similarly, at no time or point will the party attempt to change, interfere, or impede the Air Force Representative in his official capacity.

25X1A5a1

Further, it should be noted that the working agreement as practiced by the two subordinate parties should be of a bilateral nature, with as close a working relationship as possible.

Approved For Release 2001/08/27 : CIA-RDP33-02415A000600070052-0
25X1A9a
25X1A9a